Collection Envelope Sets:

Please check for your envelope set at the Church entry. If your box is not there, don't panic. There was a mix up in the order from the company. As soon as they are available, you will be notified. Some parishioners may be assigned new numbers, but this does not affect your account. Please contact the office if you have never used the envelopes and would like to request a box.

Note to Parishioners:

As Father Kurian is improving, he plans to offer only weekday morning masses beginning this Tuesday, January 8th at 7:30. He will not offer weekend masses until he feels sure that he is able to do so. Let's pray that his health and strength will continue to improve. At this time, Father Bill is scheduled for most of the weekend masses here and at St. Martin throughout January.

Update on Deacon Darrell:

You may have noticed that Deacon Darrell is not as present on the Altar as usual. Last weekend he tore the meniscus on his right knee, which has kept him off his feet. At this time he will be treated with therapy, cortisone, and rest for the next four weeks until he re-visits his doctor. Keep him in your prayers.

Reflection on 2019:

Many times, as a new year begins, resolutions are contemplated. One of the best resolutions is reciting this prayer daily and practicing the message it conveys.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow charity;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is error, the truth;
Where there is doubt, the faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light; and
Where there is sadness, joy.
O, Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as
to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying to ourselves that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Special Prayers for Florida Crash Victims:

This week a horrific accident in Florida claimed the lives of several students who attend Lafargue Elementary. Please pray for them and the broken hearts of their families, friends, and teachers.
